

RADIOLOGY TECH

Part-time Position: The Radiologic Technologist performs radiographic procedures in order to obtain desired radiographic results according to physician's specifications that includes, but is not limited to: transferring patients for examinations, performing the x-ray examination process, reviewing test result, and repeating any process necessary.

ESSENTIAL DUTIES & RESPONSIBILITIES:

1. Selects and operates equipment while selecting proper technical factors on an individual patient basis, practicing ALARA for radiation safety/awareness.
2. Assists physicians in performance of examinations by mixing and pouring contrast media, administering opaque medium holding and turning patients, assisting in sterile procedures, and other related duties as required
3. Accurately performs all order completion, documentation and review of radiology charge merges in computer system.
4. Shares call hours for all areas of radiology, as assigned by the radiology manager.

Education, Experience and Licensure/Certification Requirements:

1. ARRT Certified
2. Current Montana State Licensure.
3. Ability to communicate effectively and diplomatically within a multi-functional team
4. Strong organizational skills and attention to detail
5. Ability to successfully function in a fast paced, service oriented environment
6. Experience in understanding and usage of computers

Applications available at Clinic from desk, Human Resources or
On-line at rosebudhealthcare.com - employment.

Please submit completed applications to the Human Resource Department only.